Thank you for your interest in supporting the 2019 Joseph A. Strasser Butterfly Festival.

Who are we?

Tree Hill is a 50 acre nature preserve in Jacksonville. We provide science and conservation education programs to youth and adults across northeast Florida. Our mission is to promote environmental stewardship to the community through hands-on educational programs and low-cost access to natural areas.

What is the 2019 Joseph A. Strasser Butterfly Festival?

Since 2000, Tree Hill Nature Center has hosted this one of a kind event. The Festival attracts a wide range of visitors, from families and young couples to artists and outdoor enthusiasts. Thousands of visitors have the chance to purchase local and handmade goods from vendors, see live music, and enjoy an animal encounter presentation as well as games, crafts, and tours of the community garden. Each year, guests go wild for the live butterfly release at the end of the day with more than 500 butterflies!

Why should I consider being a vendor at the 2019 Joseph A. Strasser Butterfly Festival?

- In 2018, we had over 2,000 visitors. Being a vendor at the Festival enables you to get your products and message out to each of our visitors at the Festival.
- The Festival is a fun day! With a bounce house for the kids, arts and crafts, live music, tours of the Arlington Community Garden and much more this is a fun day for kids and adults alike!
- Through our print media partners and online marketing your logo will be seen by countless individuals.
- The Butterfly Festival is the only fundraising event that Tree Hill Nature Center conducts each year. The funds we raise through this event are vital to ensuring the best and proper care of our animals, providing high quality education programs, and educating the public about the importance of native animals and native habitats.
